FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FESCO ANNOUNCES TWO PROMOTIONS Elkridge, Maryland - January 31, 2020

FESCO Emergency Sales is pleased to announce today the first promotions of 2020! Austin Foertschbeck, Assistant Service Manager, Elkridge, MD is promoted to Service Manager, Elkridge, MD and Jay Seward, Service Technician, Ashland, VA is promoted to Service Manager, Ashland, VA.

Austin joined the FESCO team shortly after high school in 2015 as a Service Advisor, working closely with the Service Manager and Operations Manager to learn how we provide service and maintenance equal to the extremely high quality of the vehicles we sell. Austin has held several positions within the Frederick County Volunteer Fire Department and won various awards during his 10 years of service. He lives in Frederick County, MD with his fiancé and enjoys spending time with family and friends and playing golf.

Stuart Pettus, Richmond Service Center, has chosen to reduce his hours and step back as Service Manager as he meanders toward retirement after 14 years of excellent service with FESCO. Stuart is much-loved by our customers and by his fellow FESCO associates. This is a well-deserved move for Stuart.

Jay Seward joined FESCO at the Richmond (VA) Service Center in 2018 as a Service Technician and immediately became an integral part of the team. Jay, a trained machinist since 1992, is also trained in hydraulics, fabrication, remounts and specialty builds. His 23 years of experience includes being a service manager / technician doing ambulance & fire apparatus repair, remounts, and body & paint work. Jay has manufacturer training from Spartan, Seagrave Aerialscope, American LaFrance, & Horton and holds EVT and Machinist certifications.

Jay shares his off time with his wife, son and daughter and enjoys working on vintage motorcycles and old Honda cars.
