JAMES RIZZA JOINS FESCO SALES TEAM Elkridge, Maryland - June 17, 2021

FESCO Emergency Sales is pleased to announce that James Rizza has accepted the position of Regional Account Manager for Fire Apparatus for the southern Virginia & Tidewater territory.

James was raised in rural Somerset County, New Jersey. He grew up working for his father's car dealership until he started his own Landscape Design / Build company, which he ran for 29 years.

During this time, he joined the local Amwell Valley Fire Company in Ringoes, NJ as a firefighter where he reached the rank of Captain. James also held the positions of training officer and recruiting officer. Serving on truck committees was his inspiration to begin selling fire service products and eventually Rosenbauer fire apparatus.

After raising three wonderful children, James and his bride of 26 years fulfilled a lifelong dream of moving to rural Virginia and starting a small farm. In his spare time, James enjoys all outdoor activities and spending time with his wife and family.

James can be reached by cell phone at 804-484-4091 or email at jrizza@fescosales.com.
