FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FESCO ANNOUNCES TWO CHANGES IN OPERATIONS

Elkridge, Maryland - March 19, 2024

FESCO Emergency Sales is pleased to announce that effective immediately, two associates will begin in new roles within our day-to-day operations. These new roles will help to grow FESCO and better serve our customers in the ability to deliver and service their emergency vehicles.

Austin Foertschbeck has officially accepted his new role as Director of Aftermarket Operations. In his new position, Austin will oversee all service operations at both FESCO's Corporate Headquarters as well as the Richmond Service Center. In addition to taking responsibility for the entire service department at FESCO, Austin will also manage the Parts Department.

Austin has been with FESCO since 2015 and we are confident in his ability to take on this newly expanded role within the organization.

Adam Jackson has also officially accepted a new title as Delivery Advisor. In this newly created role, Adam will coordinate all matters related to FESCO's Delivery Team in ensuring smooth and effective delivery of new vehicles. Specifically with deliveries where customers use our Elkridge, MD Corporate Headquarters, Adam will also lead the 30/60/90-day follow-ups for customers.

Since Adam joined the team at FESCO in June of 2023, he has excelled in his position with handling any task or challenge thrown his way. We are pleased to offer him this newly created title which will help FESCO successfully deliver their new emergency vehicles while offering an unforgettable experience.

Congratulations & thank you to both associates who continually help to make FESCO Emergency Sales the premier emergency vehicle dealership & service centers in the Mid-Atlantic.

For information, please contact FESCO Emergency Sales at 800-638-0926.
