FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FESCO REMEMBERS JAMES HANSEN Elkridge, Maryland – April 28, 2026

It is with great sadness that FESCO Emergency Sales announces the passing of James Hansen, a valued member of our Maryland Service Team for nearly 20 years.

Throughout his time at FESCO, James earned the respect of customers and coworkers through his outstanding work and willingness to go the extra mile. His dedication to maintaining and repairing emergency vehicles made him a trusted resource for the departments he served.

James was especially well known to customers on Maryland's Eastern Shore and in Delaware, where he frequently provided road service. Many customers requested him personally, a reflection of the confidence they placed in his skill and the relationships he built over the years.

We are grateful for James' many contributions to FESCO and our customers. He will be deeply missed by the colleagues and departments who had the opportunity to work with him.

Our thoughts are with James' wife, Linda, his son, JT, and all of his family and friends during this difficult time.

For information, please contact FESCO Emergency Sales at 800-638-0926.
